

CURRICULUM MAP
PERSONAL FINANCE

Week 1-2	Weeks 3-4	Weeks 5-6	Weeks 7-10	Weeks 11-13	Weeks 14-18
Program Goals I. Develop an understanding of the student’s role as a citizen, student, family member, consumer, and active participant in the marketplace. Student Objectives A. Develop an understanding of the consumer’s role in the marketplace. B. Develop an understanding of the legalities in the marketplace. C. Learn about federal consumer legislation and the sources of consumer protection agencies on both the federal, state, and local levels. Credit – 0.5 Prerequisites-None Single-blocked One Semester	Program Goals II. Develop a basic understanding of budgeting, checking accounts, savings accounts, investigating, credit, income taxes, and insurance in the modern world. Student Objectives A. Learn about financial planning and legal documents. B. Learn about banking services. C. Develop an understanding of the income tax system.	Program Goals II. Develop a basic understanding of budgeting, checking accounts, savings accounts, investigating, credit, income taxes, and insurance in the modern world. Student Objectives D. Learn about the role of insurance in the American economy. E. Develop an understanding of credit and its use in the marketplace.	Program Goals III. Develop decision-making skills in the areas of spending, housing, marriage, and emergency planning. Student Objectives A. Develop an understanding of the personal factors that influence spending decisions. B. Learn about housing alternatives and living arrangements.	Program Goals III. Develop decision-making skills in the areas of spending, housing, marriage, and emergency planning. Student Objectives C. Develop an understanding toward decision making within a marriage. D. Develop an understanding of contingency planning for consumer spending.	Program Goals IV. Develop an awareness of career opportunities, an appreciation for employee/employer responsibilities and a skill for job application. Student Objectives A. Learn about career planning and job opportunities. B. Learn about getting and keeping a job. C. Develop an understanding of employee benefits in the workplace. 11/07/05